STEPS TO RECEIVE YOUR WELLNESS INCENTIVE

- 1) Register on the HealthFitness website at <http://mympcwellallways.com>.
- 2) Schedule an annual preventive physical with your primary care provider. Make sure services are coded as "preventive" — remind the doctor/nurse/receptionist that you have come for a preventive exam and that services should be coded as "preventive" and not "diagnostic." Generally, in-network preventive services should be covered by your health plan at 100%. Services coded as diagnostic or coded improperly may not be covered in full and you may be required to pay a deductible and coinsurance.
- 3) Bring the Annual Preventive Physical form to the appointment and have the primary care provider complete and sign. Only an authorized signature from your primary care provider verifying the completion of the preventive physical is required to be eligible for the wellness incentive. Biometric data is not required. If you choose to include your biometric data on the form, your data will be added to your HealthFitness account and a personalized health report will be generated for you. This data will not be provided to your employer and will not be accessible to your employer, other than in the form of an aggregate summary report generated for your employer to help in understanding the overall health of the group.
- 4) Upon completion of an annual preventive physical, the signed form needs to be submitted to HealthFitness. Both the employee and spouse/qualified domestic partner will need to submit individual forms. In order for the eligible family members to earn the wellness incentive, the employee must complete their annual preventive physical and submit the completed form between January 2, 2018, and December 31, 2018.

Return the completed and signed form to HealthFitness Corporation through one of the following options:

Note: Keep a fax confirmation (or have your provider keep the fax confirmation) or proof of mailing.

- 5) After HealthFitness receives your Annual Preventive Physical Form, your information will be added to your HealthFitness account and the incentive will be credited. The incentive will be applied to the employee's paycheck within 2-3 pay periods following the date on which the form was submitted. Marathon Petroleum cannot access your individual personal health information; the only information shared with MPC is if you have completed your annual preventive physical.
