MetLaw[®] Legal Plan

This document serves as both the Plan Document and the Summary Plan Description (“SPD”) for the Marathon Petroleum MetLaw[®] Legal Plan (“Legal Plan” or “Plan”) and describes the key terms and conditions of the Plan.

I. Introduction

The MetLaw[®] Legal Plan provides personal legal services for eligible employees, their spouse or domestic partner, and dependent children. This summary provides general information about the Plan, who is eligible to receive benefits under the Plan, what those benefits are, how to obtain benefits and what your rights under ERISA are.

Hyatt Legal Plans, Inc. (“Hyatt Legal”) provides the legal plan services, as described herein. These services will be provided through a panel of carefully selected Participating Law Firms; lawyers within this network are referred to as “Plan Attorneys.”

Hyatt Legal makes all determinations regarding attorneys’ fees and what constitutes covered services.

II. Eligibility

Regular Full-time and Regular Part-time employees are eligible to participate in the Legal Plan. For eligibility purposes:

- A. Regular Full-time means a normal work schedule of at least 40 hours per week, or at least 80 hours on a bi-weekly basis.
- B. Regular Part-time means a non-supervisory employee scheduled to work on a part-time basis (minimum of 20 hours but less than 35).

Employees who enroll for coverage can use the Legal Plan services for an eligible dependent. For purposes of this Plan, an eligible dependent includes the following:

- A. Spouse: The individual to whom you are lawfully married.
- B. Domestic Partner (“DP”): The individual whom you have certified as your domestic partner, per the requirements of the Marathon Petroleum Affidavit of Domestic Partner Relationship.
- C. Children: Includes your natural children of the first degree, legally adopted children, stepchildren, and children of your certified DP; all from live birth through the end of the month during which they turn 26.

This also includes disabled dependent children; children who are over age 25 but less than age 65 and incapable of self-support due to a physical or mental disability.

III. Enrollment

New employees can elect to participate in the Legal Plan by completing an election through the benefits enrollment system within 31 days of employment. The Plan requires participation through the Plan Year for which coverage is elected, so once you are enrolled, coverage must be maintained for the entire year; mid-year changes are not permitted.

Each year during annual enrollment, you can change your election, including adding or dropping the benefit, to be effective the following January 1.

IV. When Coverage Begins

If you elect Legal Plan coverage within 31 days of your date of hire, your coverage will be effective retroactively to your date of hire.

V. Cost

When you elect to enroll, you agree to pay the full cost for MetLaw[®] Legal Plan coverage and premiums are paid through after-tax payroll deductions. All contributions collected for this coverage are paid to Hyatt Legal for administration of the Plan.

VI. Continuation of Coverage on Leave

If you are on a Company-approved leave of absence without pay, you may continue your Legal Plan coverage upon payment of monthly premiums through direct bill. If payment is not received, your policy will be cancelled for non-payment. Once you return to work and are once again paying premiums, your coverage may be reinstated.

VII. When Coverage Ends

Your ability to receive legal services under the Legal Plan ends when you cease to be an eligible employee (i.e., your status changes to something other than an eligible status, as described above) or when your employment with the Company ends. All coverage ends on the date of an employee's death.

After your coverage ends, the Plan will continue to cover the legal fees for covered services that were opened and pending during the period during which you were enrolled, but no new matters may be initiated after eligibility or employment ends.

VIII. Portability of Coverage

When your MetLaw[®] Legal Plan coverage ends, coverage is portable and may be continued for a period of 12 months. If you wish to continue your Legal Plan coverage after termination, you must contact Hyatt Legal directly within 30 days of your last day of employment and arrange for the extension of coverage.

The one-time extension of coverage through portability requires payment of the full annual premium up-front, paid directly to Hyatt Legal for. Call Hyatt Legal at 1-800-821-6400 for details or to arrange for direct billing within 30 days of your termination of employment.

XII. Other Special Rules

In addition to the coverages and exclusions listed above, there are certain rules for special situations. Please read this section carefully. These rules apply to eligible employees and/or eligible dependents, including spouse or DP, and children.

- A. What if other coverage is available? If you are entitled to receive legal representation provided by any other organization such as an insurance company or a government agency, or if you are entitled to legal services under any other legal plan, coverage will not be provided under this Plan. However, if you are eligible for legal aid or Public Defender services, you will still be eligible for benefits under this Plan, so long as you meet the eligibility requirements.

- B. What if you are involved in a legal dispute with your dependents? You may need legal help with a problem involving your spouse or DP or your children. In some cases, both you and your child may need an attorney. If it would be improper for one attorney to represent both you and your dependent, only you will be entitled to representation by the plan attorney. Your dependent will not be covered under the Plan.
- C. What if you are involved in a legal dispute with another employee? If you or your dependents are involved in a dispute with another eligible employee or that employee's dependents, Hyatt Legal will arrange for legal representation with independent and separate counsel for both parties.
- D. What if the court awards attorneys' fees as part of a settlement? If you are awarded attorneys' fees as a part of a court settlement, the Plan must be repaid from this award to the extent that it paid the fee for your attorney.

XIII. Plan Confidentiality

Use of the Plan and legal services provided is confidential. The Plan Attorney will maintain strict confidentiality of the traditional lawyer-client relationship and Marathon will not know about the legal services being used under the Plan. Plan administrators will have access only to limited statistical information needed for orderly administration of the Plan.

No one will interfere with a Plan Attorney's independent exercise of professional judgment when representing an eligible employee. All attorneys' services provided under the Plan are subject to ethical rules established by the courts for lawyers. The attorney will adhere to the rules of the Plan and he or she will not receive any further instructions, direction or interference from anyone else connected with the Plan. The attorney's obligations are exclusively to participants; the attorney's relationship is exclusively with participants. Hyatt Legal or the law firm providing services under the Plan is responsible for all services provided by their attorneys.

Employees should understand that the Plan has no liability for the conduct of any Plan Attorney. Employees have the right to file a complaint with the state bar concerning attorney conduct pursuant to the Plan. Employees have the right to retain at their own expense any attorney authorized to practice law in this state.

Plan attorneys will refuse to provide services if the matter is clearly without merit, frivolous or for the purpose of harassing another person. If an employee has a complaint about the legal services he or she has received or the conduct of an attorney, call Hyatt Legal at 1-800-821-6400. The complaint will be reviewed and a response will be received within two business days of the call.

XIV. General Claims Procedures

A participant or beneficiary who feels he or she is being denied any benefit or right provided under the Plans shall have the right to file a written claim with the Plan Administrator. All such claims shall be submitted on a form provided by the Plan Administrator, which shall be signed by the claimant and shall be considered filed on the date the claim is received by the Plan Administrator.

- D. An explanation of the review procedures and the time limits that apply; and
- E. In the case of a plan providing disability benefits, a copy of the internal rules, guidelines, other protocols or similar criteria will be provided free on request following an adverse benefit determination.

Within 90 days after receipt of notice of denial of benefits as provided above, the claimant or authorized representative may request, in writing, to appear before the Plan Administrator for a review of the claim. In conducting its review, the Plan Administrator shall consider any written statement or other evidence presented by the claimant or authorized representative in support of the claim. The Plan Administrator will give the claimant and/or authorized representative reasonable access to all pertinent documents necessary for the preparation of the claim.

Within 60 days after receipt by the Plan Administrator of a written request for review of the claim, unless special circumstances require an extension of time for processing such request for review, but not later than 120 days after receipt of such request, the Plan Administrator shall notify the claimant of its decision by delivery or by certified or registered mail to the claimant's last known address.

The decision of the Plan Administrator shall be in writing and shall include the specific reasons for the decision presented in a manner calculated to be understood by the claimant and shall contain references to all relevant Plan provisions on which the decision was based. The decision of the Plan Administrator shall be final and conclusive. In addition to the General Claims Procedure described above, the Plan Insurer may have specific requirements, which you will need to follow in filing your claim.

The terms of the insurance policy will control in the event of a conflict between those terms and the terms set forth in this document.

Hyatt Legal, acting on behalf of the insurer under the insurance policy, has the authority to administer claims and to manage and interpret the insurance policy, consistent with the provisions of the Plan.

In determining the eligibility of participants for benefits and in construing the Plan's terms, the Plan Administrator (or Hyatt Legal in cases where it has the authority to make determinations concerning eligibility for benefits) has the authority and power to exercise discretion in the construction or interpretation of terms or provisions of the Plan, as well as in cases where the Plan instrument is silent, or in the application of Plan terms or provisions to situations not clearly or specifically addressed in the Plan itself. In situations in which they deem it to be appropriate, the Plan Administrator may, but is not required to, evidence:

- A. The exercise of such discretion; or
- B. Any other type of decision, directive or determination made with respect to the Plan, in the form of written administrative rulings, which, until revoked, or until superseded by Plan amendment or by a different administrative ruling, shall thereafter be followed in the administration of the Plan.

Only the Plan Administrator is authorized to make administrative interpretations of the Plan and will do so only in writing. You should not rely on any representation, whether oral or in writing, which another person may make concerning provisions of the Plan and your entitlements under them.

All decisions of the Plan Administrator (or Hyatt Legal in cases where it has the authority to make determinations concerning eligibility for benefits) made on all matters within the scope of his or her authority shall be final and binding upon all persons, including the Company, any trustee, all participants, their heirs and personal representatives, and all labor unions or other similar organizations representing participants. It is intended that the standard of judicial review to be applied to any determination made by the Plan Administrator shall be the "arbitrary and capricious" standard of review.

XX. Your Rights Under Federal Law

As a participant in this Plan, you are entitled to certain rights and protections under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). ERISA provides that all plan participants shall be entitled to:

Receive Information About Your Plan and Benefits

- A. Examine, without charge, at the Plan Administrator's office and at other specified locations, such as worksites and union halls, all documents governing the Plan, including policies and collective bargaining agreements, and a copy of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) filed by the Plan with the U.S. Department of Labor and available at the Public Disclosure Room of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.
- B. Obtain, upon written request to the Plan Administrator, copies of documents governing the operation of the Plan, including policies and collective bargaining agreements, and copies of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) and updated summary plan description. The Administrator may make a reasonable charge for the copies.
- C. Receive a summary of the Plan's annual financial report. The Plan Administrator is required by law to furnish each participant with a copy of this summary annual report.

Prudent Actions by Plan Fiduciaries

In addition to creating rights for plan participants, ERISA imposes duties upon the people who are responsible for the operation of the employee benefit plans. The people who operate your Plan, called "fiduciaries" of the Plan, have a duty to do so prudently and in the interest of you and other Plan participants and beneficiaries. No one, including your employer, your union, or any other person, may fire you or otherwise discriminate against you in any way to prevent you from obtaining a benefit or exercising your rights under ERISA.

Enforce Your Rights

If your claim for a benefit is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you have a right to know why this was done, to obtain copies of documents relating to the decision without charge, and to appeal any denial, all within certain time schedules.

Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce the above rights. For instance, if you request a copy of Plan documents or the latest annual report from the Plan and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file suit in a Federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Plan Administrator to provide the materials and pay you up to $110 a day until you receive the materials, unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the Administrator. If you have a claim for benefits which is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you may file suit in a State or Federal court. In addition, if you disagree with a Plan's decision or lack thereof concerning the qualified status of a domestic relations order or a medical child support order, you may file suit in Federal court.

If it should happen that plan fiduciaries misuse the Plan's money, or if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor, or you may file suit in a Federal court. The court will decide who should pay court costs and legal fees. If you are successful, the court may order the person you have sued to pay these costs and fees. If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees, for example, if it finds your claim is frivolous.
