Occupational Accidental Death

This document serves both as the Plan instrument and the Summary Plan Description for the Marathon Petroleum Occupational Accidental Death (“OAD”) Benefit Plan. To the extent not preempted by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), the provisions of this instrument shall be construed and governed by the laws of the State of Ohio.

I. Purpose

The Occupational Accidental Death Benefit Plan (“Plan”) is designed to provide insurance protection if your death results directly from an accident which occurs while you’re engaged in the actual performance of Company duty.

II. Eligibility

If you are classified as a Regular Full-time, Regular Part-time, or Casual employee as listed in Appendix A, you are automatically insured for coverage under this Plan on the first day of your employment as a Regular or Casual employee.

Regular Full-time means you have a normal work schedule with the Company of at least 40 hours per week or at least 80 hours on a bi-weekly basis.

Regular Part-time means you are a non-supervisory employee who is employed to work on a part-time basis (minimum of 20 hours but less than 35 hours per week), and not on a time, special job completion, or call when needed basis.

Casual means you are employed to work on a time, special job completion, or call when needed basis.

You are not eligible for this Plan if you are:

1. An individual who has signed an agreement, or has otherwise agreed, to provide services to the Company as an independent contractor, regardless of the tax or other legal consequences of such an arrangement, and
2. A leased employee compensated through a leasing entity, whether or not you fall within the definition of “leased employee” as defined in Section 414(n) of the Internal Revenue Code.

III. Cost

The Company pays the full cost of the Plan.

IV. Amount of Coverage

The amount of insurance coverage for Regular and Casual employees is the greater of:

1. $500,000; or
2. Twice your gross pay from the Company in the 12 calendar months immediately prior to your death; but
3. Not to exceed $1,500,000.

Occupational Accidental Death

V. Definition of Annual Gross Pay

Gross pay as used in this Plan shall mean the compensation paid to you by the Company under rules uniformly applicable to all employees similarly situated; however, bonuses, suggestion awards, military pay, travel pay, or similar special payments shall be excluded. If you have been in the Plan for less than twelve months, your average monthly gross pay will be used in computing twelve months' earnings.

Monthly gross pay shall include employee contributions to the:

1. Marathon Petroleum Thrift Plan Pre-tax Account;
2. Marathon Petroleum 125 Plan; and
3. Marathon Petroleum Health Care Flexible Spending Account.

If you have an approved absence of 30 or more consecutive days at less than full pay, your 12-month total will be adjusted so that such an absence will not reduce your benefit.

VI. Method of Providing Coverage

The Occupational Accidental Death insurance coverage is provided through an insurance policy with MetLife.

VII. Payment of Benefit

The insurance benefit is payable only if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

1. Your death is the direct result of an accident which occurs while you are engaged in the actual performance of Company duty;
2. Your death results independently of all causes other than the accident; and
3. Your death occurs within 365 days from the date of the accident.

VIII. Beneficiary

At the time you become covered under this Plan, you should designate a beneficiary to receive the benefit payable upon your death. Beneficiary designations and changes must be made through MetLife's online beneficiary management system or by calling MetLife at 1-866-574-2864 to request a form during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m. (Eastern Time), Monday through Friday. No change in beneficiary designation shall be effective until it has been received by MetLife.

If using the online method to create or update a beneficiary record, please follow these instructions:

1. Log on to www.mybenefits.metlife.com and enter Marathon in the Company Name field.
2. Click the "Next" button.
3. You will then see the "Welcome to MyBenefits" page where you can register as a MyBenefits user or if you have already registered, enter your name and password.
4. Once you log into MyBenefits, select the "Group Life Insurance" link.

Occupational Accidental Death

5. Across the top of the page, you will see Life Summary, Learn, Calculate, Beneficiaries, Common Questions, Contact Specialist.
6. Click on “Beneficiaries” and follow instructions to complete.

Once you have completed your sign-in, you will be able to make your beneficiary designation. Any changes to your beneficiary designation are effective immediately and you will receive an electronic notice to print for your records.

The amount of coverage upon your death will be payable in a single lump sum to the last properly designated beneficiary according to MetLife’s records. If there is no beneficiary designated or if your designated beneficiary is not surviving when a benefit becomes payable (date of death), benefits will be paid by survivor class, in the following order to your:

1. Spouse;
2. Children (either natural born or adopted through a final adoption order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction prior to the date of the member’s death) but specifically excluding step-children;
3. Parents;
4. Brothers and sisters; or
5. Executors or administrators of the insured’s estate.

Once a claim is approved, if the benefit amount payable to the beneficiary is $5,000 or more, the claim may be paid by the establishment of a Total Control Account or “TCA.” MetLife will establish this interest-bearing account in the beneficiary’s name, which provides immediate access to the entire amount of the insurance proceeds. The beneficiary can access the TCA balance at any time without charge or penalty, simply by writing drafts in an amount of $250 or more.

MetLife will pay interest on the balance in the TCA from the date it is established, and the account provides for a guaranteed minimum rate. Please note the TCA is not a bank account and not a checking, savings or money market account.

IX. Assignment of Benefits

Your Occupational Accidental Death Benefit is not assignable.

X. MetLife Advantages

Occupational Accidental Death

XIII. Benefit Claim Procedures

To file a claim, you or your survivor should contact the Plan Administrator. The Plan Administrator will then assist you (or your survivor) with the claim filing process with MetLife. MetLife shall notify you of the claim determination within 90 days of the receipt of your claim. This period may be extended if such an extension is necessary due to matters beyond the control of the Plan. A written notice of the extension, the reason for the extension and the date by which the Plan expects to decide your claim, shall be furnished to you within the initial 90-day period.

If your claim for benefits is denied, in whole or in part, you or your authorized representative will receive a written notice from MetLife of your denial. The notice will be written in a manner calculated to be understood by you and shall include:

1. The specific reason(s) for the denial;
2. References to the specific Plan provisions on which the benefit determination was based;
3. A description of any additional material or information necessary for you to perfect a claim and an explanation of why such information is necessary;
4. A description of MetLife's appeals procedures and applicable time limits, including a statement of your right to bring a civil action under section 502(a) of ERISA following your appeals; and
5. If an adverse benefit determination is based on a medical necessity or experimental treatment or similar exclusion or limit, an explanation of the scientific or clinical judgment for the determination will be provided free of charge upon request.

Appointment of Authorized Representative

An authorized representative may act on behalf of a claimant with respect to a benefit claim or appeal under the Plan's claim and appeal procedures. No person will be recognized as an authorized representative until the Plan receives an Appointment of Authorized Representative form signed by the claimant.

An Appointment of Authorized Representative form may be obtained from, and completed forms must be submitted to, the Marathon Petroleum Benefits Service Center, 539 S. Main Street, Findlay, OH 45840, 1-888-421-2199, or the appropriate claims administrator. The form is also available on <http://www.myMPCbenefits.com>.

Once an authorized representative is appointed, the Plan shall direct all information, notification, etc. regarding the claim to the authorized representative. The claimant shall be copied on all notification regarding decisions, unless the claimant provides specific written direction otherwise.

A representative who is appointed by a court or who is acting pursuant to a document recognized under applicable state law as granting the representative such authority to act, can act as a claimant's authorized representative without the need to complete the form, provided the Plan is provided with the legal documentation granting such authority.

A claimant may also need to sign a an authorization form for the release of protected health information to the authorized representative.

Occupational Accidental Death

XIV. Appeals of Denied Claims

If your claim for benefits is denied or if you do not receive a response to your claim within the appropriate time frame (in which case the claim for benefits is deemed to have been denied), you or your representative may appeal your denied claim in writing to MetLife within 60 days of the receipt of the written notice of denial or 60 days from the date such claim is deemed denied. You may submit with your appeal any written comments, documents, records and any other information relating to your claim. Upon your request, you will also have access to, and the right to obtain copies of, all documents, records and information relevant to your claim free of charge.

A full review of the information in the claim file and any new information submitted to support the appeal will be conducted by MetLife, utilizing individuals not involved in the initial benefit determination. This review will not accord any deference to the initial benefit determination.

MetLife shall make a determination on your claim appeal within 60 days of the receipt of your appeal request. This period may be extended if MetLife determines that special circumstances require an extension of time. A written notice of the extension, the reason for the extension and the date that MetLife expects to render a decision shall be furnished to you within the initial 60-day period. However, if the period of time is extended due to your failure to submit information necessary to decide the appeal, the period for making the benefit determination will be tolled (i.e., extended) for any period of time MetLife is waiting for a response from you. The tolled (extended) time runs from the date the notice explaining the need for additional information is sent to you to the date MetLife receives a response. After the response, MetLife has the benefit of extension.

If the claim on appeal is denied in whole or in part, you will receive a written notification from MetLife of the denial. The notice will be written in a manner calculated to be understood by the applicant and shall include:

1. The specific reason(s) for the adverse determination;
2. References to the specific Plan provisions on which the determination was based;
3. A statement that you are entitled to receive upon request and free of charge reasonable access to, and make copies of, all records, documents and other information relevant to your benefit claim upon request,
4. A description of MetLife's review procedures and applicable time limits;
5. A statement that you have the right to obtain upon request and free of charge, a copy of internal rules or guidelines relied upon in making this determination; and
6. A statement describing any appeals procedures offered by the Plan, and your right to bring a civil suit under ERISA.

If a decision on appeal is not furnished to you within the time frames mentioned above, the claim shall be deemed denied on appeal.

Occupational Accidental Death

Finality of Decision and Legal Action

A claimant must follow and fully exhaust the applicable claims and appeals procedures described in this Plan before taking action in any other forum regarding a claim for benefits under the Plan. Any suit or legal action initiated by a claimant under the Plan must be brought by the claimant no later than three years following a final decision on the claim for benefits under these claims and appeals procedures. The three-year statute of limitations on suits for benefits applies in any forum where a claimant initiated such suit or legal action. If a civil action is not filed within this period, the claimant's benefit claim is deemed permanently waived and abandoned, and the claimant will be precluded from reasserting it.

2. $500,000.

XIX. Your Rights Under Federal Law

As a participant in the Marathon Petroleum Occupational Accidental Death Benefit Plan, you are entitled to certain rights and protections under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (“ERISA”). ERISA provides that all plan participants shall be entitled to:

Receive Information About Your Plans and Benefits

Examine, without charge, at the plan administrator’s office and at other specified locations, such as worksites, all plan documents governing the plan, including insurance contracts, and a copy of the latest annual reports (Form 5500 Series) filed by the plans with the U.S. Department of Labor and available at the Public Disclosure Room of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.

Obtain, upon written request to the plan administrator, copies of documents governing the operation of the plans, including insurance contracts, and copies of the latest annual reports (Form 5500 Series) and updated summary plan descriptions. The administrator may make a reasonable charge for the copies.

Receive, as required by law, a summary of a plans’ annual financial reports.

Prudent Actions by Plan Fiduciaries

In addition to creating rights for plan participants ERISA imposes duties upon the people who are responsible for the operation of the plans. The people who operate your plans, called “fiduciaries” of the plans, have a duty to do so prudently and in the interest of you and other plan participants and beneficiaries. No one, including your employer, or any other person, may fire you or otherwise discriminate against you in any way to prevent you from obtaining a welfare benefit or exercising your rights under ERISA.

Enforce Your Rights

If your claim for a welfare benefit is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you have a right to know why this was done, to obtain copies of documents relating to the decision without charge, and to appeal any denial, all within certain time schedules.

Occupational Accidental Death

Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce the above rights. For instance, if you request a copy of plan documents or the latest annual reports from the plans and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file suit in a Federal court. In such a case, the court may require the plan administrator to provide the materials and pay you up to $110 a day until you receive the materials, unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the administrator. If you have a claim for benefits which is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you may file suit in a state or Federal court. In addition, if you disagree with the plan's decision or lack thereof concerning the qualified status of a domestic relations order or a medical child support order, you may file suit in Federal court. If it should happen that plan fiduciaries misuse the plan's money, or if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor, or you may file suit in a Federal court. The court will decide who should pay court costs and legal fees. If you are successful the court may order the person you have sued to pay these costs and fees. If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees, for example, if it finds your claim is frivolous.

Assistance With Your Questions

If you have any questions about your plans, you should contact the respective plan administrator. If you have any questions about this statement or about your rights under ERISA, or if you need assistance in obtaining documents from the plan administrator, you should contact the nearest office of the Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, listed in your telephone directory or the Division of Technical Assistance and Inquiries, Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210. You may also obtain certain publications about your rights and responsibilities under ERISA by calling the publications hotline of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.
